

Provable Reality

Many experiences, events, and things appear to be real, but when seen from a different point of view their seeming realities either drastically change or completely vanish away. This is why the Scriptures teach us to “prove” all things and hold fast to that which is “good.” If a thing is good, then it is of God; and if it is of God, it has reality. If it is real, its reality will never change, nor will it ever pass or vanish away. Its form may change, but its reality will not.

There is nothing in the outer form of creation, in its present earthly and mortal state, that has a true and lasting form as reality. All earthly, mortal life forms will be changed and / or vanish away; therefore one should not seek after “the things that are seen and are temporal,” but rather “seek” that which is not seen and “seek” to know that which is not known as having true reality.

One cannot prove and therefore know true reality until he first finds Knowledge that is True. It is by the Knowledge of Truth that one is able to prove anything as having reality. Without Truth-Knowledge, nothing can be proven.

Reality is not known by how one “feels” about a thing or how he “sees” it. Reality has nothing whatsoever to do with feeling or seeing. Proving and knowing the realness of a thing can only be experienced in the Spirit of a pure Mind, where all things remain the same yesterday, today, and forever. To him that is pure, all things are pure, but to the unbelieving, nothing is pure (see Titus 1:15-16; one would be wise to study this chapter).

Realization of Truth cannot be experienced and known by one unless or until he has first begun the process of the renewing of the Spirit of his Mind. As long as one is content to remain ignorant of his own true Self Identity and his own origin and purpose, he can never realize or make real to himself -- HIMSELF. Therefore he cannot KNOW HIMSELF! And until one KNOWS HIMSELF, he cannot truly know another. Until one first “proves” his own reality, he is unable to prove the reality of anything else. To this man all things “seem” real, but nothing IS; however to a man who KNOWS HIMSELF, nothing “seems” real, but to him all things ARE REAL.

Until the “seed” of Truth is planted, quickened, and increased in a man’s consciousness of Mind, Truth cannot BE REALIZED. God is Truth; therefore God cannot “BE” known and realized without conscious knowledge of Truth.

Truth, which is God, will be known by one whose desire to know Truth is above all else. One whose love for Truth burns as a fire within his heart continually loves God. One who loves God shall KNOW (be one with) GOD! The realization of and the realness of his God is all there is! Therefore, for this man, God is all and God is in all. To him, all things are pure and all is good; yea, very good!

After Truth (God) realization has come to a man, he will then begin to partake of and realize his very own true divine Nature. One who knows himself as Truth and immortality, knows himself as he is. He is divine in Nature; he is as God is. He has no beginning and he has no end. He is immortal, divine, and holy; he is whole, complete, and perfect; he is Spirit and he is Truth. He is the same when in the body (incarnate) as when not in the body (dis-incarnate). He has “made” his body (man) as himself IS, therefore there is no difference in the earthly (man-body) and the heavenly (man-body); the outer reality is as the inner reality.

Here one needs to understand that the word “man” means “body.” There is an earthly “body” and there is a heavenly “body” (see 1 Corinthians 15:45-49; please read this carefully). At the end of a man’s last incarnation (generation) in earthly form these two bodies shall become one new man / body (read and study carefully Ephesians 2:14-22). As Adam and Eve were made ONE BODY, so shall earthly first man (Adam) and heavenly last man (Adam) be ONE BODY.

We are now at the end of the age of man’s development in the third dimension. We are now, at the time of this writing (June 2007), about 13 years (using man’s measure of time) in the “overlap” stage. The “overlap” stage means that the beginning processes of the new age (dispensation) begin BEFORE THE END OF THE OLD DISPENSATION HAS ENDED.

There is a Cosmic clock with two hands on it. One hand, measuring earthly time, moves from right to left in one direction, but as man moves back to the Father’s House, the other hand of the Spirit moves from left to right. This overlap causes a reversal of time. The clock is like a circle within a circle or a wheel within a wheel. The two hands on the clock are the same length, but one day on God's clock is the same as 1,000 years on man's clock, and vice versa. This is man and God, the flesh and the Spirit, working as one, but these two hands turn in opposite directions.

In this universe is a Grand Central Sun that is stationary. All things in all realms orbit around it. Times change and things that are created change, but It (the Creator) changes not. The Cosmic clock began measuring the "time" set for the new orbit around the Grand Central Sun on November 20, 1994.

Mankind is now experiencing and will continue to experience vibrations both in the third dimension and the fourth dimension. During this time of change in vibrational rate and frequency level, the sun's rays will be more intense and the earth's atmosphere will gradually become warmer as the earth's solar system slowly moves closer to the Grand Central Sun. During this time of earth's changes, erratic behaviors will increase in the people who are not spiritually prepared for the increase in the rate of vibration of the magnetic force field around them and in them, and the increase in the numbers of electrons present in the earth's magnetic field.

Global warming is a fact, but nothing mankind can do or will ever do can change it. It is a natural evolutionary process. Those whose emotional and mental bodies are not sufficiently developed will not be able to tolerate the changes that are occurring and will continue to occur in the electro-magnetic field in which mankind lives, moves, and has being. These kinds of changes occur at the close of the old age and at the beginning of each new orbit around the Grand Central Sun. The only thing a man can do is to seek to know Truth as Truth IS, by which he will experience Spiritual Illumination that will assist him during this time of transition from third dimensional existence to fourth dimensional existence in bodily form.

At the end of the "overlap" period, all present earthly life forms of mankind "who remain" and have being will no longer exist only as a three-fold or triune being, but man will have developed a fourth part of his immortality as his earthly form is perfected; this is the house of the Lord that is built foursquare. After the three-part earthly man is fully developed (soul, mind, and body), then will be added to these three which are one body, the fourth part -- the ETERNAL SPIRIT, or the heavenly last man (body) Adam, who is a quickening Spirit.

God, the Law / Word of Moses, who was first -- but without form -- shall also be last -- but in bodily form. In the beginning, the order of the generations of man was God (the Law), Man, Woman, and Child. These four are one; they are the earthly house. But in the end, the order of the generations of man will change: it will be Man, Woman, Child, God. The Man beginning here is Jesus-the-Man, rather than Moses-the Word / Law.

As it was in the beginning, so shall it be in the end. In the beginning was the Word; the Word was with God and the Word was God! The “Word” when spoken is God in Spirit “without form,” and the Word fulfilled is God, the Word or Seed, “in outer bodily form.”

During this time of transition, the earth shall be cleansed of all mortal existence and the kingdoms (law) of this earth shall become ONE with the kingdom (Spiritual Law) of our God and of His Christ (Light). No one need wait; in fact, he must not wait to make his own individual transition and live NOW in the fourth dimensional frequency in a higher state of consciousness. Those who wait will suffer untold misery during these coming times.

These times that are ahead are called the “Great Tribulation.” The physical, mental, and emotional bodies of the earthly man must be fully developed and mature in order to be strong enough to tolerate the new energy and newly intensified force field in which he will live and have being.

The Law of Spirit and Truth is a two-edged sword. It is like one coin that has two sides; neither side has greater value than the other. It takes both “sides” of the coin to make one coin of value -- one side being the invisible Law of Spirit and Life, and the other side being the Law of Spirit and Life manifesting in visible form.

There is a Spiritual, invisible, intelligent Presence of Life without form and IT IS THE CREATOR OF EVERY OUTER FORM. The Creator is the conscious, intelligent, Spiritual side of the “coin,” and the created form is the scientific and evolutionary side of the same “coin” (law). There could not be any outer manifestation of conscious, intelligent life in form without both parts of this Law working together.

All life forms, whether animate or inanimate, are conscious, but not all are intelligent. The visible forms are the proof and evidence of a greater intelligent, invisible Presence. All life forms are invisible, but all forms of life are visible. The Creator is never visible to the natural man. The creation is visible.

ONE WHO CONSCIOUSLY POSSESSES INVISIBLE, LIVING INTELLIGENCE, WHICH IS THE SPIRIT OF WISDOM (THE LIFE OF THE WORD IN FORM) HAS THE SUBSTANCE BY WHICH HE CAN PROVE HIS OWN REALITY!
