

Question: Do you see the Scriptures being fulfilled in the events of today?

Answer: Yes, I do “see” in the current daily events that things prophesied in the Scriptures are being fulfilled. I first began writing and sounding warnings about this hour of time in prophecy back in 1984. Events are unfolding just as they have been prophesied, and they are right on time. Mankind is reaping the harvest of the seeds he has sown, and he will continue to reap this harvest for the duration of this dispensation of time.

The last earthly “harvest” man experienced was when the New Testament was given (which was a new revelation of the Old Testament / Law of Moses and the Prophets) at the first coming of the Christ (a greater Light than that of Moses or John). It was given by the Spirit through the words of a man called Jesus of Nazareth. There was a worldwide upheaval following the sending forth of that new covenant (revelation) of the earthly law.

What we are witnessing now in every area of man’s system -- beginning with religion -- is a growing confusion, fighting, hatred, etc. that will continually worsen. All of this is spreading throughout the whole world system. This is the “first fruit of the last harvest.” We officially entered into this closing of the age on November 20, 1994. This is the last harvest of man’s earthly evolutionary process ever to be experienced in the third dimension of Life.

As we continue to move through the remaining “time allotted” and the completion of the gathering of the full harvest, the earth (earthly body) shall be reaped -- and those who have paid the full price will receive a full reward. The reward from their many incarnations on this earth, on other planes, on other planets, and in their many other life forms will be a perfect, complete, whole, and glorified body composed of all types of elements, both in heaven and in the earth. What lies ahead for those whose “physical bodies will be saved from death” is complete Spiritual Illumination at a time when the full realization of earth’s scientific / creative projects is being manifested. There will NOT be many that will reach this level of realization, but every man will receive his own reward according to his own labor / deeds during his many and varied lifetimes in a bodily form.

There will continue to be chaos, pain, confusion, suffering, etc. as man’s body, consciousness, and mind are in a state of evolutionary change. This is especially true for many (if not most) religious people who will literally lose their minds. The Scriptures call this condition a “reprobate mind.” The pressure upon the mind, body, and nervous system of mankind, along with the failing and dissolving of man’s financial and social systems will prove to be too much for most. Those whose bodies are not sufficiently developed and whose minds are not spiritually enlightened will NOT be able to tolerate and bear these events / conditions. Therefore many will lose their minds and most will die (put off their mortal bodies).

Producing and experiencing the increased rate of vibration required for fourth dimensional existence in an earthly body must be obtained while yet “in the body, in the third dimension.” The increase of electrons in the “force field” in which each life form exists is called in the Scriptures the “baptism of fire.”

The four (4) corner posts that will hold the earthly, bodily structure together are fire, water, air, and earth (matter). The foundation of this eternal home must be made from “Truth,” and the mind that operates all of it must be fully Enlightened.

This has been a long and arduous journey for all mankind. The culmination of both his spiritual and his carnal works in the third dimension is now being manifested as part of the transitional process into the fourth dimension.

Fire is the last element of the four corner posts to be added, and then the end will come. The fire will prove all things -- and expose, uncover, and openly make known the contents of all men's hearts, whether it be of God or otherwise.

As the force field in which we live and have our being gradually becomes more "forceful," man's behavior will become more irrational and violent. I strongly recommend to all who will "hear" the voice (call), that they move away from all major waterways and large cities. They should move to a place where they can plant and grow their own food and have a deep-water well. Surely these will be needed before we reach the other side.

There is no need, however, to be afraid or to worry. These things "must" come. It is the "Law of Life" at work, and this Law can only produce from a seed the things (forms) that the seed holds within it. Mankind has planted "seeds" of his own choosing, and now he will reap his own harvest. Every part of man's system MUST and WILL completely fail, and afterward all things will be made new.

I have not been informed of any special effects that the year 2012 will bring. I know there are those who think 2012 will be a time of some significant event, but I have not had any such revelation. I never repeat "hearsay," but rather I say only what the Spirit has revealed personally to me. As for the "black president" -- here I will give a word of caution. Don't be too sure that the U.S.A. will have a "black president" in office at this time; let's wait and see. I have nothing more to say on this at this time, however things will NOT develop politically or financially as many imagine that they will. I am told there are popular movies concerning a "black president," but I have not seen these.

Take care, and let all of this soak in like a fine mist of rain. Keep alert and communicate within yourself continually and you will NOT be caught unaware or unprepared, regardless of what may be going on in the outer world.

REMEMBER: THE MORE VIGILANT YOU ARE IN YOUR PURSUIT OF SPIRITUAL ENLIGHTENMENT, THE MORE YOU WILL BE ABLE TO UNDERSTAND, AND THE MORE PREPARED YOU WILL BE FOR THE CURRENT AND FUTURE CHANGES TO MAN'S SYSTEM AND TO THE PLANET HERSELF.
