

FREEDOM

In John 8:31-32 the Lord said, "If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; And ye shall know the truth, and the truth (that you know) shall make you free." Notice that it was "the Lord" who said this. The Lord is the Spirit of Wisdom -- not the spirit of man. The phrase, "continue in my word" implies that one has already received and begun his journey in "the word of truth" -- the word being given to him by the Spirit of God (the Lord) -- as opposed to only having knowledge that he has learned from other men through the avenue of his five senses.

Many of the writings in the New Testament, in particular the parables concerning the coming Kingdom of God, speak of a separation or division that must and will occur before one can enter the Kingdom of God. "Continuing" to increase in the Knowledge and Wisdom of "the Lord" has everything to do with the dividing and separating mentioned in the parables. In Luke 12:51 "the Lord" said, "Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division."

The Scriptures also give instructions to "study" them, that you may be able to rightly and correctly divide them. They also speak concerning one's ability to recognize the "spirit of error" and the "Spirit of Truth." By this it is obvious that one's "freedom" is dependent upon his ability to know and be able to discern and divide truth from fiction. The parable of the wheat and the tares gives a clear picture of how this "division" (separation) will occur. See the parable in Matthew 13:24-43; please read and study it carefully.

This parable says that the wheat and the tares were sown by two different kinds of men -- therefore they are different types of seed. It says that one was sown at night while men were sleeping, and the other in the day when those who received them were awake. It is very important to notice that both the seeds of wheat and the seeds of the tares were sown in the same field, and they were "quickened and resurrected together." Notice that they were given new life -- in a new form -- and that they grew together "until" the time of harvest. This means that the kind of seed sown by the devil (the tares) and the kind of seed (wheat) sown by the Son-of-Man -- and their new forms (form of doctrine) -- cannot be known until the time of harvest. However, one who will receive and continue in the Word of Truth will receive the gift of the Spiritual Seed (Word) that will produce in him the ability to operate the "gifts" of the discerning of spirits, and he will be able to discern between truth (wheat) and error (tares) before the harvest. Without this gift and the ability to rightly divide and discern, the "kind" of seed one sows in his heart (field) and mind -- and the "kind" of tree that the seed will produce -- cannot be known until the tree bears her fruit.

If the "seed" (knowledge) is of man's doctrine (organized religion), the tree and its fruit will be corrupt. If the "seed" is a True Seed, the tree and its fruit will bring forth the true Word of God, and her fruit will give Life to those who partake of it -- whether they partake of her bread (Knowledge) or her meat (Wisdom).

One who receives the knowledge and the doctrines of men and continues therein will reap the fruit of his own self-righteousness which is as filthy rags in the sight of God. Those who eat the flesh (knowledge and wisdom) produced by their own senses and partake of other men's mortal words (bread) will be clothed with their own corrupt, mortal flesh and the flesh (knowledge) they borrowed from others.

You are what you eat! God is not man! God is Spirit! The bread (word) of sinful (sensual) men is perverted, erroneous, and corrupt -- and the thoughts of his carnal mind are sensual, devilish, selfish, hateful, and of every kind of evil thing that the knowledge of evil can bear.

In the allegory of the Garden of Eden, there was a tree (woman) who was double minded, so she (Eve) ate of the tree of the knowledge that she was instructed not to eat. After she had eaten from the tree, there was growing in her mind and Soul the knowledge of evil, producing in her the wisdom of man. There was also growing in her the good seed called the knowledge of good. This means that every man has partaken of both the knowledge of evil (and born its fruit) and the knowledge of good (and born its fruit) during his many lifetimes.

This same woman held in her consciousness the “good” word of knowledge and the “evil” word of knowledge at the same time, as all men do, but chose rather to eat and follow the bread of death (error) rather than to eat and follow the True Bread by which to live and not die. There really is “good” in everyone, regardless of how deep it may be buried. However, the “good seed” within a man can only be found by the one to whom it belongs.

The word “freedom” is used and kicked around like a football in the language of every nation in today’s society. In the name of freedom millions have been killed in wars, and as many lives have been destroyed. But freedom can never come through wars and chaos. One who remains double-minded will kill his brother for freedom and die without peace. He may cry, “Lord, Lord,” but until the bondwoman and her son (the knowledge and wisdom of man) are cast out, he will remain unstable, unsettled, and double-minded, and his soul will find no rest. He will not know freedom and he will not have peace of mind. Please see Isaiah 59:1-8; read and study this carefully. The bondwoman is the “spirit of error,” and her children -- the fruit of her evil mind (womb) -- are vipers that are hatched out of rotten cockatrice eggs.

The “spirit of error” is the spirit of corrupt men whose prophecies are without Truth and whose wisdom (wives) are cunning and seducing spirits. Their doctrines and the “characters” used in their doctrines are fictional, and they worship an unknown God. They have great imaginations and they tell outrageous stories in the name of God. They are false prophets whose words are seeds of corruption that produce deception, fear, and false hope in those who believe their tales and follow them.

Only one who has received the spiritual gifts and increased in the Knowledge of Truth and thereby been renewed in the spirit of his mind -- and has received the Light (Consciousness) of the True Bread -- will be able to discern and choose between the True Word and its works and the false bread (rod) of man and his works.

By the works of the mortal, carnal law and the doctrines of men (flesh), man’s mortal senses grew and his carnal mind developed and he became wise in his own eyes. His religious works appear to be of God, but one who is born of the True Word has in him the “Spirit of the True God” and he will immediately recognize the “spirit of error” at work. One cannot rightly judge by the outer “appearance.” All righteous judgment comes only by the “Spirit of Wisdom” who dwells within a true child of God. Only a child of God can know the true doctrines of God and recognize the doctrines of mortal man.

By the inner workings of the Law of Spirit (God and Truth), man’s carnal, mortal senses -- and their nature -- can be and are transformed and given a new nature. This can only occur by dividing (separating) the True Word from the false and fictional word of knowledge and wisdom that is in you. If you say that you have no “false profit” in you, you do err in your belief systems, for all men have partaken of the law of sin (man’s senses) and death. The only way anyone can say, “I have no devil (tares / false profit) in me,” is to have cast out the knowledge, the wisdom, and the nature of corrupt men. This can only be done by receiving the True Word of God and “continuing” therein. The bondwoman (the wisdom of men) and her fruit are a product of the carnal law and a mind controlled by one’s mortal senses -- by which one is “ever learning and never coming to the Knowledge of Truth (God).”

Please read Galatians 4:22-31 that speaks of the allegory of Abraham, his two wives, and their sons. These two women and their sons (the two covenants and their fruit) will continue to grow and work together until the harvest which is now at hand (at work in the earth). One of these women will be “taken” and the other one will be left. The one who will be taken is the bondwoman. She, along with her son (the tares and false doctrines) will be tied in bundles and burned. The carnal works of the flesh of men will be tried by the Fire of Life (the Spirit of God). One whose works are of this woman and her son -- the knowledge, wisdom, and doctrines of man -- will not be able to endure the fiery trials that are sure to come and are here already, for this man’s works are of sensual (sinful) flesh and they shall be burned and destroyed.

It is far better to cast out the devil and his works now (the tares and works of sensual flesh) by receiving and continuing in the True Bread (the Word of God), than to have a house (mind and body) void of Light and Truth. The pouring out of the Spirit (Fire) on all flesh (knowledge, wisdom, and understanding) will prove the “flesh” of men and reveal what kind of men they are. Those who have no Light of Truth in them will be cast into outer darkness, which means the light of mind, knowledge, and wisdom that they now seem to have will be “taken” away by the Fire of God (Spirit). They will then have a reprobate mind. See Romans 1:16-32 and 1 Corinthians 1:17-25. Please read and study these passages carefully.

Joel 2:28-32 speaks of this outpouring of the Spirit in the last day upon all flesh (men). The Scriptures also speak of a “baptism of fire” in the last day. This event is already at work in the earth and it will continue to be poured out and become seven times more intense as it continues to destroy the works of corrupt minds and the mortal flesh matter of all men.

The “light and consciousness of mind” of those who have no Knowledge of Truth and Wisdom of God in them is a “false light.” It is only a reflection of the True Light. Like the light of the moon is only a reflection of the sun, so is the knowledge and wisdom (light of mind) of mortal man false, imaginary, and fictional. There is imaginary freedom and there is true freedom. There is “true hope” and there is “false hope.” There is Truth, Life, and Peace available, and there are -- at least for a short time -- the religious works of the false doctrines of evil men. The peace of the world (the doctrines of men) that gives false hope will soon flee away, but the Peace of God that passes Understanding (that comes with the Truth that makes you free) is eternal.

One who has reached a state where he is TRULY FREE has already been through the Fire; all the tares in him have been gathered together and burned. The judgment of God has already begun in the “house of God” on planet earth. The true Jews are judged first, and afterward the Gentiles. The “true Jews” are those who are given the Oracles of God. An Oracle is the bodily form of an indestructible, immortal, incorruptible, eternal Word of Truth.

The judgment of God is the outpouring of the Spirit -- which is FIRE! The only things left of the tares (the false doctrines of men) and their works of fiction are a broken mirror (image / wall), ashes, and smoke after the Fire (Father) has finished proving and scourging his people. After the tares (doctrines of men) are gathered together and burned (literally destroyed in the mind and bodies of men), then all of the True Bread (wheat) will be gathered together and safely deposited in the place of security that has been a long time in preparation: the new body (earth) and the new mind (heaven) -- the New Jerusalem of God!

When there are no more words or works of man’s knowledge and wisdom in one’s consciousness, he is then FREE FROM the law (knowledge) of sin (his mortal senses) and their nature (death). Every word of knowledge and its increase that one has learned by the works of his five senses (sin) must be destroyed and pass from him BEFORE HE IS TRULY FREE.

The free man is ready to be settled, established, and strengthened in his own house. Freedom means a man is no longer double minded, fearful, uncertain, and unsettled. He is no longer deceived, confused, weak, and timid. He is no longer subject to (or ruled over by and limited to) man's laws and his systems of government. He no longer has need of a burial policy, a burial plot, or a retirement fund. Rather, he is strong in the Knowledge of Truth and walks in the counsel and fellowship of the Wisdom of God -- THE LIVING TRUTH THAT MADE HIM FREE.

A free man is a man of his own -- or rather, he is his own man. He owes no man and he belongs to no one. He has earned the "right" (birth right) to BE FREE. In this house there are no "fictional" characters or smoke-filled mirrors, images, or wishful thinking. In this house one is "free" to choose whatsoever he desires, and all who are members of this house are born in this house and they are all THE TRUE CHILDREN OF THE MOST HIGH GOD. There are no bondwomen, servants, or strangers in this house. Those spirits (ideas and thoughts) who wish to visit here must do so by "invitation" only!

FREEDOM -- TRUE FREEDOM -- awaits every man who will come to the Knowledge of Truth and lay aside fiction and deception (man's organized religions, carnal laws, and doctrines of men). The doctrines (play books) and their characters are all fictional and man-made. THE ETERNAL TRUTH THAT SETS MEN FREE IS SPIRIT, AND IT IS LIFE!

dsfe072909