

What is the Purpose of the Bible and Why Was it Given to Mankind?

Let us first understand what the purpose of the Bible is, and why it and all other inspired religious books were given to mankind. I will only speak of the so-called "Christian Bible," but the information here concerning the creation and evolution of bodily forms and the expansion of consciousness of mind applies to all people in like manner, regardless of their religious persuasion.

The Bible is a book that is written in the language of metaphysics. It is written in a form of word pictures (images), parables, and allegories. The characters and their names used in the Bible's metaphors are fictitious. The Bible was inspired by Cosmic Mind and channeled through one who was spiritually enlightened and sufficiently developed to be able to receive the information while in an earthly, bodily form and record it. The original recordings were all written by the same incarnate during different lifetimes at different stages of man's development.

The moral law was given to mankind in the early stages of his development. The law was first given to man to help him to learn knowledge, become wise, and develop his five senses. Nothing that has happened to man, or anything that he has done to himself or to other men has caught Infinite Mind by surprise. Nor has any part of man's behavior during his time of evolution and development been without purpose and potentially beneficial to his development.

The Bible provides men with a description of the evolution of a Soul, and how the creation of his bodily form first began in the earth. Man's bodily form has evolved through the four kinds of earthly flesh matter, each of them having a different kind of nature and life form, and each having a greater or lesser measure of consciousness in them by which to hold the composition of the form and the elements together.

The earth is a giant scientific laboratory where life forms are built, created, and hatched. Each bodily form is an incubator -- like a "cocoon" -- where the "Atom" who is the Creator of the form does his work, using the laws of science and physics for his creation. He first creates an outer body by wrapping himself in the substance (flesh) of knowledge and wisdom, forming the cocoon. Then, inside the cocoon (an outer body), the Atom creates other bodily forms. During the formation and evolution of the bodily forms of a man, the Atom (God and Spirit) creates other bodies inside of the physical human body, all with many body parts (like the physical body has), each of them having their own counterpart. The bodies and their counterparts include the physical matter and astral Anti-Matter bodies; the Christ and anti-Christ bodies; the angelic and archangelic bodies; and the mental and emotional bodies.

The earth was created by highly evolved Spiritual Minds called Sons of God millions of years ago (by man's timetable) for the express purpose of building, creating, and hatching life forms. After the earth was finished being created and formed, the first man Atom descended into the deep (the center) of the earth. There he joined himself to a mineral element of his choice and the element became his first "wife." In the center of the earth there is molten rock (fire) called "hell." The mineral that the Atom attached himself to is an element of the fire of hell. The two together, the Atom and the mineral fire element, created and wrapped themselves with dust and matter to create a one-cell amoeba -- and from there every earthly form has been created, evolved, and developed.

The formation and creation of a man's earthly body had its beginning in the life (fire) of the mineral kingdom (the mineral kind of life form), and afterward man's body evolved through the vegetation and the four-footed beastly forms. Lastly, the upright man-kind of bodily form appeared.

We are now at the end of the age and at the end of the time allowed to complete the earthly scientific research. Therefore the “body building” project in the earth is at its end. The purpose for the “body building” project is that the Atom whose building project it is would have a body of substance in which to abide and experience himself in his own flesh, and be able to “feel” emotions, love and be loved, and know compassion. The Atom “alone” is intelligent Spirit and abides in Cosmic Mind, and he is clothed only with the “light” of the sun. The Atom is the “ray” in the sun’s light that gives heat, warmth, and life to the light.

The body building plan was not just to have a bodily form of just any kind, but to create a body that he (the Heavenly Atom) could enter into and grow, multiply, and form himself in it. The plan was to fill the body (temple) with all the fullness of himself, and for the body to have his Divine nature. This of course includes the ability of the mind and the consciousness of the bodily form to hold and experience the fullness of his Wisdom, Light, and Pure Intelligent Life (Fire) in it. So the great scientific Mind, the great Physicist (physician), and the great Alchemist working together create the bodies and all the body parts, and eventually the whole body, all parts being one, perfectly fits the “light body” of the Heavenly Man Atom.

While the body is being built and perfected, lifetime after lifetime (during numerous incarnations), the light and consciousness of mind is also expanding by learning knowledge and gaining wisdom. All the while, Soul is also being recorded. Everything the body feels and experiences, and all that the mind learns during each lifetime of the individual is recorded in his “consciousness,” and this record is the living “Soul” (memory) of the earthly man Atom. All of the “Soul” recordings are put in a “file” and kept safe until the time of the Atom’s last “generation” (incarnation). At the end of all the recordings, all the Souls are resurrected and given new life (memory). Some of the knowledge and wisdom recorded on the Soul will be destroyed at the time of the quickening (resurrection) because it is erroneous and was gained through the works of the five senses, including all that has been gained through the work of the senses during the present lifetime.

The Atom cannot ascend back to the Father’s house (the star from which he descended) and take a bride with him that is not in his exact likeness, or that is inferior or flawed in any way. The consciousness and the content of his individualized mind and every cell and every part of his body must be pure and without spot or blemish. This is why the body, Soul, and the mind must be tested and proven by the “fire” before the time of the ascension. The so-called “wrath” of God is the “baptism” (immersion / burial) by and in the fire of the Spirit of the Living God. For one to think or say that this baptism of fire is some kind of punishment by some “unknown” God is indeed a farce. For one to say, “There is no God,” is also a fantasy and is erroneous.

The name God means Good. This means that the “Seed (Word) of Knowledge” that began with a “Good” idea was the beginning of the creation of a bodily form that in the end of its development is the eternal home of the Creator of the body. A “Good / God-Word” (Seed) is a TRUE Word, and in it is the Light (“I”) and the Life (Spirit) of the One whose idea the creation of the body was in the beginning. In the end the “I” (idea) is realized.

If you are reading this writing and you are in a body, then you are the God whose idea it was to descend into the earth and wrap yourself in a body of flesh and bones. For one to deny this is to deny one’s own self and being.

There is not, nor has there ever been any “other God” (Atom / Adam) but you involved in the creation and evolution of your bodily form! Granted, there have been many “imaginary gods” in the lives of every man during his times of development, but in Truth there has always only been “the ONE God” -- and that One God is YOU! You are the first and you are the last Adam (Atom) involved in the creation of your body and the expansion of the light and consciousness of your mind.

God is good. God is Life. Life is good.

God is Truth. Truth is always good and never changes.

The man who says there is no God denies himself, Life, Truth, and all goodness. Therefore one who denies himself is a fool!

God is consciousness of mind and God is the Mind that is Conscious. All living beings live, move (vibrate), and have their being in God / Consciousness. Every manifested form is conscious on the plane it exists upon. Infinite Wisdom through the “Mind’s body” -- the Atom -- is the Creator of all forms of life. Science, evolution, Mind, and Spirit are facts of life, and all of these are essential to the creation of forms.

The Bible will very soon be an extinct book (as will all other religious writings) because the information in them will have no more relevance to life. As we have already said, the Bible gives information concerning the creation of forms, the development of the senses, and the expansion of one’s consciousness and light of mind on planet earth. It is also a book that instructs, teaches, corrects, and helps the creation to become aware and acquainted with her creator, the Atom (God). One who looks only to himself who is resident in his creation will find his own Truth (God) -- and then the body, mind, and Spirit (God) will all work together and become ONE. He who finds his own God (good) will have no more need for the book of learning, for he will have found his true Teacher (God) within his own house (body).

The Bible and other inspired writings of paper and ink, as well as man’s carnal religious writings (along with their associated rituals, doctrines, etc.) will have no place in the new age that we are now entering. The law by which each one will live will be written and engraved in his own heart by the work of his own hand (Spirit). Because of his Divine nature the new man will be a “law” unto himself. He will set his own rules according to his own measure and state of maturity, and he will set his own limits if there are any for him.

It is “natural” for Divine nature to love, honor, and respect all forms of life and all life forms. Therefore one who lives in this natural state never trespasses, offends, or harms another, for he knows that to harm another is to harm himself -- because he knows all are “ONE” and “ONE” is all!

Amen.
