

Take Dominion and Rule

There are four kingdoms presently operating openly on planet earth: the mineral kingdom, the plant kingdom, the beast kingdom, and the kingdom of man. These four kingdoms each operate by a different rule of law, and each has a different part and function in the creation and the evolution of life forms on the earth. While they each operate by a different rule of law, they all co-operate and co-mingle, the one with the other.

Mankind, being the most developed physical form of the four, has the greatest measure of light and consciousness of mind of any of the members of the four kingdoms. But at the same time, he is dependent upon and sustained by the first two kingdoms: the mineral and the vegetation kingdoms. In man's present under-developed state, even though he is the most developed life form on planet earth, he is totally helpless to sustain his own life without the first two kinds of life forms. Mankind should have dominion and rule over the lesser-evolved kinds of life forms and forms of Life -- but instead the "lesser" has dominion and rule over the "greater." This should not be so, and it must cease!

Mother earth has not been able to wean and shake most of her children from her teats and her body and marry them off -- to fend for themselves and make their own way. She will do this now, though, because her days of child bearing and giving suck are fast coming to an end. She is a tired old lady and her life "time" is ebbing away. She will soon "give up the ghost," the veil will be rent, and she will be changed (born-again) -- as will all of her children who remain after the last and final shaking.

Except a man be born again he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God and therefore he cannot "see" the God-kind of (spiritual) life forms around him. The Kingdom of God is within you. The Kingdom of the Gods is in our midst, coexisting among us just as the other four kingdoms coexist among each other. In order for a man to be able to "see" the spiritual life forms who live among us, he must be "born" into a higher dimension of Life -- just as an earthly man was born among the other three earthly kingdoms (kinds of life forms) and he can see those who are in his likeness.

Those who exist on the higher planes of Life give spiritual "gifts" (seed) to men who exist on lower planes of Life. Those who give these gifts are ascended Masters. They are called "Masters" because they have achieved dominion over all earthly elements and life forms, and they "rule" and live by a higher standard of law. They are the caretakers of all "lesser" forms of Life upon the earth. They have mastered and have dominion over the earth, water, air, and fire. The elements of earth, water, air, and fire are the four "cornerstones" of creation of outer forms, and all four must be understood and mastered before one can ascend into the higher dimensions of Life in his earthly bodily form.

A fully developed and fully formed body of a man of flesh is literally "an animated plant" (planet) in the form of a man. He is an earthly kind of "plant" (life form) that has evolved into a form of "flesh matter." His body was formed out of the elements of the earth in the belly of his mother in the same way the body of a tree is formed out of the elements of the earth's body.

The "kind" of tree or flesh body the earth will bring forth is determined by the kind of "seed" that falls in (is planted in) her body and dies -- and is resurrected to newness of life (changes forms). In like manner, the "kind" of life form conceived in the body of a man of flesh is determined by the kind of "gift" (seed) that is planted in it. If it is a seed of a man, the earth will bring forth a man-child. If the "seed" is a "God" seed, the earth will bear a God-child.

When an earthly man's body and mind are sufficiently developed, an ascended Master will plant his seed in the earthly man's body. In "due season," when the seed is quickened and the child grows until he is fully formed within the body of his mother, the child will be born into the Kingdom of his Father -- just as an earthly man's child is born out of his mother's body into the kingdom of men.

The earth is the "mother" of every form that lives upon and within her body. An earthly man is nothing more than an animated plant (tree) of flesh with only a breath of Life in him. When he is born again and his body is formed out of an incorruptible Seed he will be born into the Kingdom of God, his Father -- and he will then have eternal Life in him. He was born into "death" when he was planted as a seed in an earthly body and his own body was formed out of a corruptible seed of flesh, but when he is born "again" of an incorruptible Seed he will pass from death (flesh) unto Life (Spirit). Conceiving a "Seed" given (planted) by and coming from a higher life form -- an ascended Master -- is a great honor. The one in whom the "Seed" is given (planted) is highly favored of God. This kind of "mating" and conception is called Cosmic Sex; it is the Immaculate Conception, and the "Seed" comes from and is given by one's own ascended "Soul Mate."

A man is somewhat like a chicken that is without form, shut up in the shell of an egg. His "mother" -- in whose body the egg is formed and from which it issues out with him in it (without form) -- afterward sets upon the egg, keeping it warm while the chick is being formed inside of the shell of the "egg." When the "chick" (new life form) is fully formed inside of the shell, it will break or "peck" open the outer walls of the shell around it, using the sharp end of its beak to make a door through which to escape from the inside of the shell. His freedom will come by his own work and his persistent "knocking upon the door."

The "spiritual gift" of the Word of Wisdom is planted and formed in the heart of a man in like manner as an egg is formed in the body of its mother (the chicken). When it is near the time for it -- the egg -- to be born, she prepares a place (nest) in which to lay her egg. The chicken knows within herself that after the birth of the "egg" (her first born) she will not leave the nest (place) she had prepared and laid the egg in until she first sets down upon the egg in the nest and waits until it is "born again" and goes free in a form that is in the likeness of its Father -- who fertilized the egg in the "first place" that it was formed (the body of the chicken). The Father takes no part in the birth of the "second child." Only the love and faithfulness of the mother and the heat from her body (desire) is needed to form and create the bodily form of the chick within the egg.

The first born earthly man of flesh, like the egg, cannot inherit the Kingdom of God, his Father, because he has no form, Life, or freedom of his own. He is nothing more than an egg of flesh without form, shut up in a shell (earth body) waiting (hoping) his mother will keep him warm (never leave him alone, meaning to never leave her body) until he is fully formed and he is born a second time in the likeness of his heavenly Father and Mother. This is why the "Lord" admonished his disciples to "stay in the Jerusalem (the body) that now is" until he would come again in another form.

Planet earth is a giant scientific laboratory, and a human body of flesh is nothing more than an "incubator." The earthly body keeps the heavenly egg, the seed of the woman (the Pearl of Wisdom -- which is the gift of the Word of Wisdom) warm (comforted) until the new life form (Christ) within the egg is fully formed, hatched, breaks loose, and goes free. When the "Christ child" in the body of its mother is fully formed and it is time for the birth, he will break down from around his body the outer wall (the placenta) that separates him from the Kingdom of his Mother and his Father. Then he will emerge from within the bag of saltwater (the body of flesh) where he has been shut up, preserved, and protected while he was waiting for the time of his birth. The birth of the Christ child into the Kingdom of God will be in much the same manner as it was when the human body of flesh was born into man's kingdom.

When it is time for the birth of the Son-of-God, there shall be an entrance ministered unto the Mother and her Son into the Father's house. The firmament will roll away and the "heavens" will open and the Kingdom of God will be "seen" and known on earth as it is seen and known in heaven.

The earth groans within herself, waiting for the manifestation of the Sons-of-God upon the earth. All power and dominion is given to the Sons-of-God upon the earth. They will rule the new earth by the Law of Peace, Spirit, and Life in the coming Kingdom of God and the new world order -- now and forever. Amen.
